

FRIDAY FACTS

FROM THE PRINCIPAL...

I love the account of Zacchaeus in Luke 19. He was one of the most despised individuals who lived in Jericho. He was a corrupt tax collector. And even though he was wealthy, no one respected him and very few claimed him as a friend. One day, Zacchaeus heard that Jesus was coming to town. Zacchaeus had heard about Jesus. He had heard that there was something unusual about Him, and he decided to find out for himself. A crowd had gathered around Jesus, and being vertically challenged, Zacchaeus could not see. So, he climbed a tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus. I doubt that he ever expected to have a conversation with Jesus, but he did and ended up experiencing a life change. What is meaningful to me is that Jesus noticed Zacchaeus. And by the way, he knows where you are too. I don't know what you're going through right now. You may be struggling financially; you may be experiencing frustration; you may feel like nobody knows what you are going through. But God knows where you are, and he's paying attention to you. That's because you matter to God.
