

FRIDAY FACTS

FROM THE PRINCIPAL...
 “He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake.” – Psalm 23:3 Life can leave us weary. Trials, disappointments, and failures drain our strength. Yet, David reminds us that our Shepherd lovingly restores our souls. When we feel broken, He brings healing. When we are exhausted, He gives rest. When we stray, He gently leads us back. God’s restoration is not just about comfort; He leads us in righteousness. His paths are true, guiding us to holiness. This isn’t for our glory, but for His name’s sake—to display His goodness and faithfulness. If you are weary today, trust the Shepherd. Let Him refresh your soul and lead you in His righteous ways. His grace is sufficient, and His guidance is sure. Follow Him, and you will find strength for today and hope for tomorrow.
